

N°37 April 2017

www.observatorioasiapacifico.org

News

Academic and business activities

Seminar will analyze opportunities, and challenges of the Pacific Alliance to Asia

The importance of the regional value chains for the Asian expansion of the block, and the usefulness of this agreement for the development of the digital trade within the region will be some of the issues to discuss in the event. The Seminar "Alianza del Pacífico: Oportunidades y desafíos de la integración regional" (Pacific Alliance: Opportunities, and challenges of the regional integration) is organized by the Universidad del Desarrollo (UDD), and the Sofofa. It will count on the the presence of important national, and international guests, and will be held on Tuesday, 25 April, at 8:30 a.m., at the Centro de Conferencias de la gremial. For further details of this interesting meeting we spoke to Fernando Schmidt Hernández, Academician of the UDD, who is one of the organizers.

China-Mexico cycle of conferences

"To build the Chinese-Latin American association of education for the business initiative, and creation of entrepreneurs"

Latin-American Forum of Infrastructure 2017

This event will provide Australian business with an unprecedented opportunity to learn about the development of infrastructure held throughout Latin America. By means of complete presentations, round tables, and individual meetings, the participants of the Forum will have the opportunity to know: the current economic situation of the main markets of Latin America; the fundamental role the development of infrastructure will have in the growth of the productivity, and the increase of the competitiveness of these markets; the portfolio of projects offered in each market, and the strategies for accessing them; issues to be taken into account when investing or participating in projects in the region.

China "important investor" in Latin America

Marisol Argueta de Barillas, Senior Director, and Chief of Latin America in the World Economic Forum (WEF), said, on 7 April, that: "The influence of China, and its relations with Latin America are increasingly stronger, mainly as an important investor".

Japanese-Brazilian group presents investment projects

Brazilian and Japanese businessmen and officials attended a meeting with President Michel Temer at the Palacio Presidencial. 'The wise man group' of the "Asociación Económica Estratégica Japón-Brasil" (Japan-Brazil Economic Strategic Partnership) was received on Thursday (6 April) by President Michel Temer for a presentation of investment projects they want to develop in Brazil. Made up by Brazilian and Japanese businessmen and authorities, the organization aims at strengthening the bilateral relations between both countries.

A FTA with Mercosur will increase the exports of Korea to South America

Chung In Kyo, Economist, and Professor of the University of Inha of Korea, states that the exports of South Korea to South America will grow from now to 15 years in about 2.700 million dollars if the country signs a free trade agreement with the Mercosur.

Cuban rums explore Vietnamese market

Tradition, history, and culture are some of the credentials of the products that the company Cuba Ron S.A. shows today in order to gain access to the Vietnamese market, according to the Expert in charge of that mission, Iliá María Cardoso.

China and the commercial future of Mexico

In a recent column, we transcribe the conclusion of a group of businessmen and economists of the Municipality of Cuautitlán Izcalli, State of Mexico, who stated that our country must seek new ways to face the crisis with the United States of America. And one of them is China that surprisingly pronounced in favor of the economic integration, and the international trade liberation. This group proposes to constitute a Customs Union with China, Argentina, Brazil, Peru, and other countries. Likewise, according to the declarations by the Ambassador of Mexico to Chile, Ambassador Otto Granados Roldán in 2013 concluded that our country has a very important presence with countries constituting the Asia- Pacific Alliance, with the Latin-American countries such as Chile, Peru, and Colombia.

Agreements and negotiations

Solidarity, a bridge between Asia-Pacifico and Cuba

The solidarity constitutes a bridge between Asia-Pacific, and Cuba, which is reinforced today with a meeting between representatives from both parties in this capital, focused on new indications of support to the Caribbean country.

Mercosur and Pacific Alliance establish axis to progress towards integration

The Argentinian Minister of Foreign Affairs, Susana Malcorra, and the Chilean Minister of Foreign Affairs, Heraldo Muñoz, agreed upon six axis in which they will work so as to reach a greater integration between the Mercosur, and the Pacific Alliance.

Minister of New Zealand identifies three collaboration opportunities with Chile

On the occasion of the High Level Dialogue that the Chilean Minister of Foreign Affairs, Heraldo Muñoz, convened last month, the Minister of Trade of New Zealand, Todd McClay, held a conference organized by the Fundación Chilena del Pacífico, and the Embassy of that country in Chile.

Third Strategic China-Argentina Dialogue for the Cooperation and Economic Cooperation

The Secretary of International Economic Relations of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Horacio Reyser, participated in the high level meeting in order to develop the “Third Strategic China-Argentina Dialogue for the Cooperation and Economic Cooperation”, held in the National Development and Reform Commission of the People’s Republic of China.

Publications

La irrupción de China y su impacto sobre la estructura productiva y comercial en América Latina y el Caribe

This study examines the structural change held in the world economy since the beginning of the century, with the emergence of China as one of the most important agents in the production and global trade, and it analyzes its implications for Latin America, and the Caribbean.

Chile's Salmon Industry: Policy Challenges in Managing Public Goods

The Salmon Industry in Chile supplies one third of the world production, Norway being the first one. How did Chile, without having wild habitat of salmon, become the second most important exporter in the global market?

N°37 April 2017

www.observatorioasiapacifico.org